Library Day at the PNE

Win a bookmark! Win a bag! North Vancouver District Public Library joined forces with InterLINK member libraries for a fantastic day in the Library Zone at the Fair at the PNE on Wednesday, August 23. Library patrons across BC were awarded entry to the Fair for just $5 when they presented their library card. The Library Zone provided fairgoers with free storytimes, a pop-up mini maker space, giant board games, and it wouldn't be the Fair if there weren't prize-wheels aplenty. NVDPL visited with 500+ people throughout the day at the PNE! Library Day was a fun way to reward library card-holders and a great opportunity to showcase the diverse range of services and activities offered by libraries today to those who are not currently frequent users. Even representatives from the PNE commented on how fantastic the Library Zone was! Here's a little taste of what the NVDPL got up to:

- 1) Kirk McLean and VPL at Storytime
- 2) Canucks' mascot, Fin, spins the NVDPL wheel
- 3) Patrons write out "NVDPL" with the giant Scrabble
- 4) Blowing bubbles at the NVDPL tent
- 5) Giant Snakes & Ladders in the Library Zone
- 6) Playing with Burnaby Public Library's Hungry Caterpillar
- 7) The Zen Zone
- 8) Waving goodbye to Kit, the Summer Reading Raccoon
